Disclaimer

The Jazz Factory teachers are trained in correct dance technique and physical instruction; however, all dance classes can involve the risk of personal injury.

While The Jazz Factory knows the importance of safe dance practices and takes all reasonable care in the conduct of its classes, it accepts no responsibility for injury or loss caused during classes or whilst participants are at or near the dance studio.

Participants are responsible for ensuring that they are physically and medically fit for the class and during the class they must take care of their own personal safety at all times. The taking care of one's personal safety includes mandatory participation in the warm up and stretch element of the classes. Additionally, participants should take care of their personal safety by attending classes well equipped, which includes bringing their own bottled water and wearing prescribed clothing and footwear.

In addition any student being dropped or collected before/after the times of the classes stated above will not be supervised and therefore, if left, is done at your own risk.
